Board Policy (BP) 300 Civility Policy

August 17, 2017

I. Overview/History of Department or Program:

The district has recognized the need to develop a focus on constituent and customer service in order to address parent, community, and employee concerns in an efficient and effective manner. Staff have reviewed best practices in the area of constituent and customer service programs, including those in Natomas Unified School Districts and Fresno Unified School District, and are in the initial stages of developing a similar program within Sacramento City Unified School District. The adoption of this Board Policy would further outline the expected level of civility, courtesy and respect among our staff, parents and employees, and it will be used as a cornerstone of the constituent and customer service initiative.

II. Driving Governance:

- x Board Policy 1312.1 Complaints Concerning Schools
- x Board Policy 1312.2 Complaints Concerning Instructional Materials
- x Board Policy 1312.3 Uniform Complaint Process
- x Board Policy 1312.4 Williams Uniform Complaint Procedures

III. Budget:
